

Karema Al-Arabi, Director

Karema moved to Westborough District in 2011. She worked and owned a restaurant called Togo's and Baskin Robbins from 2001-2014 until she sold it and started working at Sam's Chowder House in Half Moon Bay as a food server/banquet captain. Karema finished her high school and secretary diploma in Kuwait City. She also studied English at Skyline College. She has two kids and a step-son who has two beautiful daughters. She wanted to be more involved her community and when she got accepted into the Westborough Water District, she felt lucky. She wants to do a lot to improve her community.